

At baptism we are called into a special relationship with Christ. We are made “Holy”, we are made “Saints”.

On All Saint’s Sunday, November 7, we celebrate the lives of all of our ancestors and those who have gone before us this past year. They were men and women who may have sat next to you in a pew, worshipped in same worship space, asked for forgiveness, and were cleansed through the same waters of baptism. We broke bread together and shared in the Lord’s supper.

We say thanks for this worship space and the Christian inheritance they passed on to us. On All Saint’s Sunday we are also reminded of baptism, set-apart for the service of God. We are reminded of our baptismal vows God himself calls us “Holy” and “Saints”. Let us pray that we may remain faithful to our baptismal covenant and keep sharing Christ to the world.

Do you have special reminders of your Baptism day? Bring them to worship on November 7 to share with one another.

There will be tables set up in the gym where you can set up your display. Be sure to put your name or a short story on the table alongside the things you are sharing. It could simply be a photo, a candle, or a special gown that was handed down in your family.
